THE LINCOLN COUNTY JAIL is a 25 fixed bed facility. This capacity creates 9,125 annual bed days. In 2019, the Lincoln County Jail had 8,760 bed days, resulting in the housing of 755 inmates. 12 total agencies housed inmates in 2019 including Reardan Police Department, Odessa Police Department and the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office. The remaining 9 agencies are contracted with the sheriff's office for inmate housing services. These agencies are the Adams County Sheriff's Office, Cheney Police Department, Airway Heights Police Department, Department of Corrections, Kalispell Tribal Police Department, Stevens County Sheriff's Office, the US Marshall's Service and the Washington State Patrol.

The average daily population of the Lincoln County Jail was 26 inmates, 5 females and 21 males. The overall average length of stay was 15 days. The average length of stay for felony offenders is 30 days, and 13 days for misdemeanor offenders.

The general classification by crime of the 755 inmates in 2019 was: (in order)

- DOC Detainer 45%
- Pre-Sentence Felon 13%
- Pre-Sentence Criminal Misdemeanor 12%
- Pre-Sentence Traffic Misdemeanor 9%
- Other holds- to include non-DOC Contract Agencies 9%
- Pre-Sentence DUI 7%
- Post-Sentence Felon 6%
- Post-Sentence Traffic Misdemeanor 4%
- Post-Sentence Criminal Misdemeanor 4%
- Post-Sentence DUI 3%

The jail is staffed by 9 Corrections/Communications Deputies and 2 command staff consisting of the Jail Superintendent and the 911 Coordinator. Corrections officers receive 160 hours of training for their Corrections Officer Certification. In addition to these hours, staff receives continuing education in Crisis Intervention, Blood Borne Pathogens, Defensive Tactics and CPR/First Aid, and Opioid Overdose Intervention. The staff is committed to providing timely, professional service and carries out this commitment on a daily basis with honesty, integrity and professionalism.

911 COORDINATOR JO BORDEN ANSWERS YOUR DISPATCH QUESTIONS:

When I dial 911 in Lincoln County who is answering my call?

Lincoln County Dispatch Center is staffed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. We have a staff of 9 Dispatch/Corrections Deputies and 2 supervisors. There is a minimum of two on each shift, which includes nights, weekends and holidays.

What information will I be asked when I call 9-1-1?

When your call is connected, you will hear the dispatcher answer the call with "Lincoln County 9-1-1. What is the location of your emergency?" Your location is important, so you should be prepared to know where you are. Know your address, and if you are traveling know your direction of travel, name of the road you are on and an approximate mile marker or cross road. If we can't find you, we can't help you.

Doesn't your computer show my location, like I see on TV?

We live in a very rural area and sometimes that information is not available. Often times we only get the nearest cell tower you are calling from, and sometimes we don't get information to pinpoint your location at all. Be prepared to give your location.

How many calls does Lincoln County Sheriff's Office receive?

In 2019 Lincoln County dispatch answered 4,405 9-1-1 calls, answered 20,387 administrative calls and made approximately 9,884 outgoing calls from dispatch.

CHESTER "CHET" ERNEST ALFRED TEMPLIN passed away at 100 years old on February 2, 2020 after a battle with pneumonia in Spokane, WA. Chet was born to German immigrant parents, Elsie "Ella" (Wellsandt) and Ernest Templin, on December 11, 1919 in Ralston, WA. He grew up amongst the vast wheat fields that called on him to become a farmer. Chet was curious, smart, and a good speaker, making friends wherever he went. He especially enjoyed the Ag program and graduated from Ritzville High School in 1938. He farmed with his father near Tokio, WA until he could borrow money to purchase the farm himself. Chet was deferred as farm exempt from World War II. He worked part-time with the ASCS measuring allotments for farms in Adams County while continuing to farm. He married Gladys Rose (Regan) in 1945, and they welcomed their daughter, Garnet, in 1947 and their son, Garrett, in 1950. Chet was always a forward thinker. At Gladys's urging, he was among the first farmers in Adams and Lincoln counties to drill wells for irrigation and grow green crops like alfalfa in 1948, and later blue grass seed. The farm now sits as a lovely oasis in the middle of the dry, dusty, rolling hills. With farming always a challenge, Chet did extra jobs to support his family. He sold Purina feed, and sold and installed Stormor grain storage tanks and later Scafco grain bins—an activity he did into his 90s. He was a great mentor to the young men in his crews and became a lifelong friend to the farmers he helped. Over 1000 of his grain storage bins now pepper the landscape throughout Adams, Lincoln, Grant, Spokane, and Whitman counties. Chet achieved much in his 100 years, from being the 1st Ritzville FFA president, a 4-H Livestock Club leader, and a member and master of the Crab Creek

Grange, to helping establish the Ritzville Conservation District. He was a lifelong member of Emanuel Lutheran Church in Ritzville, graciously serving in multiple roles over the years. After Gladys's early death, Chet married Juanita (Perkins) Stromberger in 1979. With the same values and strong faith in God, they were happily married for over 40 years until Chet's death. They enjoyed time with their beloved children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. They experienced many adventures together, including visits to Australia, Europe, and China. Recently they faced their greatest challenges together after 'Nita lost most of her eyesight, Chet's leg was amputated, and they left the farm for Riverview in Spokane. Despite this, their love and support for one another, their family, and their community never wavered. Chet was preceded in death by his parents, wife Gladys, brothers Delbert and Robert, and infant sister. He is survived by his wife Juanita; daughter Garnet Templin-Imel (Kenneth Imel) of Camano Island; son Garrett Templin (Carol) of Ritzville; step-daughter Julie Eller (Michael) of Kennewick; grandson Reid Templin (Angela) of Lake Forest Park; grandson Jared Templin (Linsey) of Kennewick; granddaughter Reagan Templin (Keith Babinec) of Redmond; granddaughter Patricia Rutledge (Daniel Wadleigh) of Spokane; granddaughter Lisa Imel of Bellingham; grandson William Eller (Sara) of Seattle; grandson Christopher Eller of Seattle; and eight great grandchildren. Visitation will be Friday, February 7, 2020 from 9am-5pm at Danekas Funeral Home in Ritzville. An interment will be held at the Ritzville Lutheran Cemetery on Saturday, February 8, 2020 at 1pm with a Memorial Service following at Emanuel Lutheran Church at 1:30pm. Memorial donations may be made to Emanuel Lutheran Church (206 S Division Street Ritzville, WA 99169) or a charity of your choice in loving memory of Chester Templin. To leave online condolences for the Templin family please visit our website at www.danekasfh.com. The family would also like to give thanks to Harold Fleiger for the wonderful photos.
