Linda Knapp

Feb 27, 1944 - Dec 29, 2021

On December 29, 2021, Linda Dee Jenkins Knapp passed away. She was absolutely beloved and admired by many, including her family, and her ladies that would attend her annual ladies 2-in-1 tournament at the Harrington Golf & Country Club. Ladies came from far and wide to golf with "The Knapper." Linda inspired them to support her beloved HG&CC, to come for the camaraderie, and to hear her wild and often outrageous jokes that she performed as her comedy persona, "Sister Mary Linda." She proudly represented the state of Washington to play in the Women's Amateur Pub-Links Tournaments and traveled throughout the nation.

Linda was born and raised in LaGrande, OR to a traveling Christian Book salesman and part time Barber. Her father taught her to play golf at a young age, but she taught herself how to tell a joke. She played the French horn, and excelled in music and sports, winning a scholarship to Whitworth University. She graduated with a BA in music education and went on to teach music in Lind and Davenport, where she would meet her husband, Gregory Knapp, a third generation wheat farmer of Harrington, Washington. They had two daughters together.

In 1991, friend Eileen Paulson talked Linda into forming K/P Productions, giving the gift and opportunity of theater and music to the local community. Linda also directed plays for the Harrington High School, leaving lasting memories for many students, staff, and parents alike.

She leaves behind her daughter Kirsten, and was preceded in death by her daughter Kelly, and her husband Greg. Linda had an incredible ability to establish lifelong friendships with people of all ages and will be greatly missed. A Celebration of Life will be held later this year. "I love you, my Sweet Mommy Girl." - Kirsten

GRANT AWARD RECEIVED BY LINCOLN COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

During the 2021 session, the Washington State Legislature passed quite a few laws relating to public safety and impacting local government law enforcement agencies. ESSHB 1310 addresses use of force by law enforcement officers, which includes physical force, deadly force, and the use of less lethal alternatives (e.g., de-escalation tactics).

In response to the new laws, the Washington State Department of Commerce announced a Request for Proposal for proposals from law enforcement agencies to procure less-than-lethal equipment.

"Because of the grant opportunity, my office applied for the less than lethal equipment to assist my deputies in their duties," Sheriff Wade Magers reports. ...highest award of the 24+ other agencies within the state of Washington that applied. Awards ranged from $6,853 to $148,138. With that funding, the LCSO will be securing three new less than lethal devices, to include the Taser 7, BOLA Wrap (remote, non-lethal restraint device which launches a Kevlar thread with grapples on either end), and pepperball launchers.

It's important to note that each tool has an appropriate use, depending on the circumstances and all facts known to the officer involved, leading up to and at the time of the use of force. LCSO Deputies will be well trained on the use of the new devices, an expense also covered by the grant funds.

"This was a team effort and involved many hours of applying, securing bids, attending demonstrations, and in assuring the equipment met the guidelines of the grant. The entire administrative team was involved in the process and the hard work paid off," the Sheriff reports.

JANUARY 19 IS NATIONAL POPCORN DAY

On January 19th, National Popcorn Day pops onto the scene with a crunch we all love to enjoy! The annual celebration recognizes a treat that satisfies munchies, day or night.

This time-honored snack can be sweet or savory, caramelized, buttered or plain, molded into a candied ball, or tossed with nuts and chocolate. However it is enjoyed, enjoy it on National Popcorn Day, January 19th.

The word "corn" in Old English meant "grain" or, more specifically, the most prominent grain grown in a region. When Native Americans introduce their most common grain, maize, to early Europeans, they aptly applied the word "corn."

As early as the 16th century, the Aztecs used popcorn in headdresses worn during ceremonies honoring Tlaloc, their god of maize and fertility. Early Spanish explorers were fascinated by the corn that burst into what looked like a white flower.

Popcorn started becoming popular in the United States in the middle 1800s. It wasn't until Charles Cretors, a candy-store owner, developed a machine for popping corn with steam that the tasty treat became more abundantly poppable. By 1900 he had horse-drawn popcorn wagons going through the streets of Chicago.

At about the same time, Louise Ruckheim added peanuts and molasses to popcorn to bring Cracker Jack to the world. Then in 1908, the national anthem of baseball was born. Jack Norworth and Albert Von Tilzer wrote Take Me out to the Ballgame. From that point onward, popcorn, specifically Cracker Jack, became forever married to the game.

Another romance connected to popcorn may have had a slow start but eventually took off. Today, who can imagine going to the movies without getting buttered popcorn? While popcorn was an economical choice for snack food, the expense of installing a machine and adequately venting the building didn't seem worth the effort. If it weren't for Glen W. Dickson, we would be purchasing our popcorn from a vendor on the street before taking in the show. Dickson put in the effort and expense of placing machines inside his theaters. After realizing how quickly he recouped his costs, other theater owners followed suit.

The microwave oven spurred the next big advancement for popcorn. With the invention of the microwave, a whole new market opened for the snack food. Magnetrons, a technology produced by Raytheon Manufacturing Corporation for the military during World War II, were later used to develop microwave ovens. Percy Spencer was the man who made it happen. He used popcorn in his initial experiments during the microwave's development.

Today, Americans consume 13 billion quarts of popcorn a year, more than any other country in the world. A majority of the popcorn produced in the world is grown in the United States. Nebraska leads the corn belt in popcorn production. nationaldaycalendar.com/national-popcorn-day-january-19/

Popcorn FAQ

Q. What are the unpopped kernels called?

A. Unpopped kernels of popcorn are called old maids.

Q. Which state produces the most popcorn?

A. Nebraska is the top popcorn producer in the United States. Also known as the Cornhusker State, although it's third in overall corn production.

Q. Are there different types of popcorn?

A. Yes. Most of the popcorn we consume is either a Butterfly (also known as snowflake) or Mushroom popcorn. Butterfly popcorn produces a fluffy, winged kernel while Mushroom popcorn produces a denser more compact kernel. While both are delicious for snacking, Mushroom popcorn holds up better to caramel, cheese, and other coatings.
