RICK CHRISMAN

9/29/1961-12/14/2022

Rick Chrisman went home to the Lord on December 14, 2022. He was born September 29, 1961 in Spokane, WA to George and Junia Chrisman. He went to school at Creston. He worked with his dad logging. One summer he went to the Olympic National Forest to help clear trails - he enjoyed the outdoors and all it had to offer. He worked 26 years for Gary Trepanier Excavating in Tieton, WA. Rick was always willing to give a helping hand. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He is preceded in death by his mom, Junia Chrisman; and grandparents, Fred & Marie Haydon and Aubry and Irene Chrisman.

He leaves behind his dad, George Chrisman, his brothers Rod and Ronnie, his sisters Sharon, Susie & her husband Chuck, several aunts, uncles, cousins and nieces and nephews.

JAY ALAN LANDSIEDEL

Jay was born on the 4th of July 1957 and he joined the Lord and his Army of Angels on January 7th, 2023. Jay was preceded in death by his mother and father, Yvonne and Lyle Landsiedel, as well as his grandchildren, Ella Yvonne Landsiedel and Tony "Baby T" Bews. Jay is survived by his wife of over 30 years, Susan Landsiedel; his brother Larry Landsiedel; his four sons Tony, Jake, Jesse, and Erick; along with nine grandchildren, Brandon, Tara, Andrea, Daphne, Ashton, Judson, Jaxson, Bentley, and Houston.

Anyone who knew Jay would tell you that he was never the type to give up on anything... ever. Jay fought long and hard for many years, battling the effects of C.O.P.D. before he was selected by Jesus to come home. Jay was always a fan of the underdog and a believer in second chances. He always looked for the good in someone, even if all he heard about them was bad.

Jay was born in Missoula, Montana, graduated from Rogers High School in Spokane, Washington, and served in the United States Navy Reserves. He raised his family in Spokane until 1993 when he moved to Davenport, Washington with his wife and kids. Jay was one of the hardest workers around, and was never scared to take a risk if it meant getting ahead. Whether that meant working for someone else or running a business of his own, he knew what it took to get the job done.

In his later years, Jay still loved to get outdoors when he could, even if that meant getting down to Fort Spokane to throw his line in the water or just hanging out in the backyard with family. Jay was the kind of guy that would make you feel like you've known him your whole life, even if you had just met him. He had the kindest heart as well; he would give you the shirt off his own back in the dead of winter if he thought you needed it.

The world is now one great man shorter than it was yesterday and the Landsiedel family will be celebrating his life with anyone that wishes to join us at the Memorial Hall in Davenport, WA. We are holding a "Potluck" style celebration. So please, bring your favorite dish/side along with your favorite story about Jay and join us at 1:00pm on Saturday, February 4th, 2023.

WILLIAM E JOHNSON
(Bill, Billy, Wink or Winky)
2/14/51 - 1/7/23

Bill was born at home on the Johnson Farm on Valentines Day in 1951. He was the sixth of seven children born to Elmer (Cactus/Coyote) and Betty Johnson. Bill, or rather Billy in those days, graduated from Creston High School in 1969. Billy participated and excelled in every sport throughout his school years. He had a competitive spirit and loved the game, it didn't matter what game; he loved competing. Bill earned the nickname "Wink" in high school - I don't know if it was because he was quick as a wink or if it was because he winked at all the girls (I've heard the story told both ways). Nevertheless, the name stuck and it later evolved into Winky, which is the name still used by his family and friends.

Not long after graduating he met the love of his life, Janet McKinnon. The two were married in 1971. During this time Bill continued to play sports on local town teams which earned him a scholarship to play football for a community college. Unfortunately he injured his hamstring within the first week of practice and his football career came to an end. Bill was a hard worker, a true entrepreneur, and he wasn't afraid to take a risk or try something new. At the age of twelve he grew a small potato garden, an experiment at first which later paid off. After high school he worked at the Lincoln Sawmill for seven years. Dairy farming was next on his lists of professions. While running the dairy Bill opened Cowboy Concrete, a small concrete plant in Seven Bays, WA. After seven years of dairy farming and concrete he, Janet and Lindsay were off to Reno for a new start. Bill worked as a security guard in Reno for a few months before accepting an offer to manage Truckee North Tahoe Materials, a concrete plant in Truckee, CA. During that time he invented the Aku-counter, a digital drum counter for concrete trucks. Bill sold and distributed the Aku-counter for several years all over the country. After seven years in California it was time to go back home to Eastern Washington.

Bill and Janet bought the Dinner Bell Restaurant and Lounge in Loon Lake, WA which they owned and operated for twenty years until it burned down in 2011. In 1996 Bill and Janet built the Lakeside Motel in Loon Lake, WA. As if running a restaurant and Motel wasn't enough, Bill started a construction company, and worked with his son-in-law Jesse Smith for many years. Bill's life came full circle in 2012 when he and Janet bought the Corner Cafe in Creston, WA. After purchasing the Corner Cafe they built storage units on the other side of town. As I said before, he was a true entrepreneur and had a colorful career. To top it all off, he and Janet raced horses successfully for nearly thirty years. They enjoyed racing at Emerald Downs, Bay Meadows, Golden Gate, and had a few exceptional horses along the way.

Bill and Janet were married for, dare I say, 51 years. They had two daughters, Darcy Marie Johnson and Lindsay Day Smith (Johnson). However his son-in-law Jesse Smith was a son to him and he loved him as if he was his own. Bill treasured watching his grandkids, Layne Smith and Vincent Smith, grow up next door. Bill loved his family. The measure of his life should be measured by the loving care his family provided at the end.

Bill is survived by his wife Janet, daughter Lindsay and son-in-law, Jesse Smith; his grandchildren Layne (Kristie) Smith, Vincent (Chantelle) Smith; his brothers Melvin (Donna) Moulton, Ted Gilman, Terry (Donna) Johnson; his sisters Vicki (Rick) Hietman, Charlotte (Steve) Etue; his sisters-in-laws Lila (Wayne) Snider and Phyllis Melberg, John Melberg, brother-in-law Mick McKinnon; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Bill was preceded in death by his daughter Darcy Marie, his mom Betty Johnson, his dad Elmer Johnson, brother Brad Johnson, and his beloved mother-in-law Bernice McKinnon.

The family suggests that memorials be made to the Davenport Ambulance & EMT's, 10 Nicholls St., Davenport, WA 99122, or charity of choice. Fond memories and expressions of sympathy may be made at www.strate-funeral.com for the Johnson family. STRATE FUNERAL HOME, DAVENPORT, WA is caring for the family.
