CAUGHT YOU!

A couple of weeks ago, I was dropping off Advertisers at the Reardan Post Office, which means lugging in several heavy mail bags. An older gentleman who was heading to his car reversed course when he saw me and went to hold the door for me. He waited while I went back to my car and made a second trip in with more mail bags. He then waited until he was sure I didn't need to make a third trip. I thanked him at the time but wanted to recognize him here for his thoughtfulness. I don't know his name but I hope he sees this and knows how very much his kindness meant, along with his parting wish to "have a blessed day."

(If you've caught someone being nice and would like to let them know, send it to us and we'll print it here!)
