St. Nicholas Day - December 6

The legendary figure of St. Nicholas is derived from Nicholas of Myra who officiated as a bishop in 4th century Greece. During his lifetime he developed a reputation for gift-giving by putting coins into other people's shoes, which accounts for many of today's Christmas traditions that involve leaving gifts in shoes or boots. St. Nicholas is the patron saint of Russia and Greece, of a number of cities, and of sailors and children, among many other groups, and was noted for his generosity. St. Nicholas Day is celebrated on December 6, believed to be the date of his death. (Some countries celebrate St. Nicholas Day on December 5 or 19th.) After the Reformation, St. Nicholas was largely forgotten in Protestant Europe, although his memory was kept alive in Holland as Sinterklaas. There St. Nicholas is said to arrive on horseback on his feast day, dressed in a bishop's red robe and mitre and accompanied by Black Peter (Zwarte Piet), variously described as a freed slave or a Moor, to help him distribute sweets and presents to good children or lumps of coal, potatoes, or switches to bad ones. The Dutch took the tradition to New Amsterdam (now New York City) in the American colonies, where Sinter Klaas was eventually transformed into Santa Claus by the English-speaking majority. It is reported that St. Nicholas day was celebrated in New York as early as the 1800's. The legend of a kindly old man was united with old Nordic folktales of a magician who punished naughty children and rewarded good children with presents. The resulting image of Santa Claus in the United States crystallized in the 19th century by the writings of Clement Moore, and he has ever since remained the patron of the gift-giving festival of Christmas. In Britain he was largely replaced with Father Christmas.

In parts of northern Europe, particularly the Low Countries and some German-speaking areas, St. Nicholas Day has remained a time when children are given special cookies, candies, and gifts. In many places, children leave letters for St. Nicholas and carrots or grass for his donkey or horse. In the morning, they find small presents under their pillows or in the shoes, stockings, or plates they have set out for him. Oranges and chocolate coins are common treats that represent St. Nicholas's legendary rescue of three impoverished girls by paying their marriage dowries with gold. Candy canes, which have the shape of a bishop's crosier, are also given.

DAVENPORT - ODESSA - SPRAGUE MAKE YOUR VOICES HEARD!

The Davenport Chamber of Commerce has just kicked off a community assessment survey that it hopes will inform and inspire their decision-making and, hopefully, decision-making throughout the county. The Chamber is inviting all residents of Davenport, Odessa and Sprague to engage in the process and help drive the future of their communities!

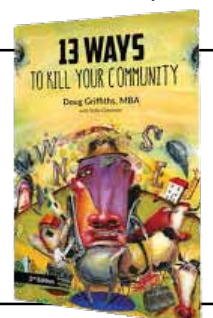

Residents of all ages are invited to participate by taking the survey available at <http://avista.surveysby13ways.com/> between now and December 20

Please encourage friends, families and coworkers to take the survey, too! Done in partnership with Avista Utilities, the survey is built on a popular book titled "13 Ways to Kill Your Community" which looks at 13 ways that communities across the nation unintentionally limit growth and opportunity.

The surveys are anonymous and, once completed, the responses will be combined, analyzed, and turned into suggestions that will be shared with the public and the Chamber of Commerce.

"Regardless of the situation, a community's future truly rests within its own populace and their desire to achieve success. It is just that simple."

Doug Griffiths
