NORAD SANTA TRACKER?

Like many origin stories, NORAD's mission to track Santa began by accident. In 1955 a young child, trying to reach Santa, dialed the misprinted phone number from a department store ad in the local newspaper. Instead of calling Santa, the child called the Continental Air Defense Command (CONAD) Operations Center in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Air Force Col. Harry Shoup, the commander on duty that night who answered the child's phone call, was quick to realize a mistake had been made and assured the child he was Santa. After more incoming calls, Shoup assigned a duty officer to continue answering calls and a tradition was born, that continued when NORAD was formed in 1958.

Each year since, NORAD has dutifully reported Santa's location on Dec. 24 to millions of children and families across the world. Because of the support, services and resources generously provided by volunteers and our government and corporate contributors, NORAD Tracks Santa has persevered for more than 65 years.

In fact, what started because of a typo has flourished and is recognized as one of the Department of Defense's largest community outreach programs.

Each year, the NORAD Tracks Santa Web Site receives several million unique visitors from more than 200 countries and territories around the world. Volunteers typically answer more than 130,000 calls to the NORAD Tracks Santa hotline from children across the globe.

WHO THE HECK ARE 'DUNDER' AND 'BLIXEM'?

By Robin Parrish

Everybody knows Clement Moore's famous 1823 poem, The Night Before Christmas. Most of our traditions about Santa Claus are based on it. So I was kind of flummoxed to learn that Donner and Blitzen the reindeer were originally named Dunder and Blixem.

According to Snopes and Wikipedia, the poem originally read:

*Now Dasher! now, Dancer! now, Prancer and Vixen!
On, Comet! on, Cupid! on Dunder and Blixem!
To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!
Now, dash away! dash away! dash away all!*

That's right. The Christmas reindeer you know as Donner and Blitzen were originally given the Dutch "Dunder" (as in Dunder Mifflin for fans of 'The Office') and "Blixem" — names that translate as "Thunder" and "Lightning" (though the Dutch spelling of the latter would actually be "Bliksem"). From there, historical accounts tend to diverge.

But apparently, the two reindeer got updated names from an editor named Edmund Stedman when he published the poem in An American Anthology: 1787-1900. Instead of sticking with the Dutch names, he made them German. Dunder was changed to "Donder," which eventually became "Donner," largely due to its alteration in Gene Autry's 1949 mega-hit song, "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer." Blixem was changed to "Blitzen."

Also, they were probably female, as male reindeer shed antlers in winter.

All these years of hearing that poem and singing "Rudolph"... and I had no idea. Did you?

Wishing you a Christmas season filled with family, joy, and hope!
