ON NOVEMBER 13, five cords of firewood were being delivered by a family from Creston, WA. Several times I saw them go around to the north of my garage, to where my dogs, Shane and Pip, were temporarily tied (at the request of those delivering the firewood). On their way out for their next to last load, they were flagged down by our relatives up the road. When they came back there were four big strong males with them. I never took my eyes off of them because I didn't like the way they spend more time than necessary behind the garage and less time working. I feared for my dogs' safety. It was impossible for me to get near them and they ignored my calls to stay away. It was the same way on the last load of firewood. On their way out, they stopped at our relative's house for a little chat. Just before they were leaving, Teri got an emergency call from the ranch; she said she would be back as soon as possible and then put the dogs in the kennel for the night.

When the dogs started screaming at about 10:45 pm, I went across the patio on crutches to check on them. Pip ran to me and then for the door, where he stayed. I got as far as the kennel run by the garage and saw enough of the people dog-napping Shane to know who they are. Teri returned but missed the criminals by about three minutes.

Anyone having seen them or heard anything on Shane, please call the numbers below. Remember "thieves": The Lord said for every moment of grief you give another, He gives it back to you ten fold!

Darrel Francis Parsons
 He was born June 21, 1957, in Odessa, Washington, and passed away January 31, 2024, at his home in Coulee City, Washington.
 Darrel grew up on Lake Creek ranch, youngest of the three children of Francis "Tuffy" & Mary Ethel (Warwick) Parsons. He was educated in the Harrington Schools, and earned a degree from Spokane Community College. His professional career in agriculture led him to establishing his own company, Parsons Equipment, all while maintaining cattle at the family ranch.
 Darrel joined his life with Patricia Welling in July of 2000. Patty brought to the marriage sons Grant and Corbin, completing their family. Patty was a true partner to Darrel in the equipment business and ranching. He thoroughly enjoyed his business and the customers who became friends.
 The Coulee City community surrounded Darrel and Patty with tremendous support in the last weeks. Our family is so grateful for their kindness.
 Darrel was preceded in death by his parents and step-son Grant Whitaker. He is survived by wife Patricia, step-son Corbin Whitaker and fiancé Brittani Benally, step-daughter-in-law Becca Whitaker, sisters Patty Tarbert and Peggy Miller, and numerous nieces and nephews.
 A memorial service will honor Darrel's life on Friday, February 9, 2024, at 1:00 p.m., at Strate Funeral Home Chapel, Davenport, Washington. A family interment will precede the service at Hillcrest Cemetery, Harrington, Washington.

Phyllis Ann (Cox) Addington
 Entered into rest on January 25th, 2024 in Spokane, WA at age 74. She was born August 28th, 1949 in Spokane, WA to Joseph and Martha Cox. She grew up and attended school in Reardan, graduating from Reardan High School in 1967 as Valedictorian. Phyllis pursued her teaching degree at Eastern Washington College and graduated in 1972. It was there she met her husband of 28 years, Mel Addington. After Phyllis taught a few years in Spokane, she returned home to Reardan, WA, started her family, and resumed her full time teaching career. She taught 1st Grade at Reardan Elementary School until retiring in 2014. Her last 1st grade class will graduate this year.
 She was a member of the Reardan Lutheran Church, ADK Teaching Sorority, and the Reardan Memorial Library Board. Phyllis enjoyed traveling, reading, being a grandmother, chatting with friends, and playing games, especially pinochle.
 She is survived by her two sons and daughters-in-law: Joey & Erika Addington of Spokane and Jimmy & Ellen Addington of Reardan; three grandchildren Kinlee, Everett, and Logan; her sister and brother-in-law Shirley & Jeff Broyles of Spokane Valley; and many nephews and nieces. She is preceded in death by parents Joe and Martha (Wegner) Cox and husband Mel Addington.
 Phyllis's family would like to thank the staff at Sunshine Memory Care for providing safety and comfort for her since last May.
 A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, March 16, 2024 at 10:00 am at Reardan Lutheran Church; Pastors Carol & Greg Yeager officiating. There will be a luncheon and fellowship at the Reardan Grade School commons following the service. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Emmanuel Lutheran Church, P.O. Box 207, Reardan WA, 99029; and Reardan Memorial Library, P.O. Box 227, Reardan WA, 99029.
 Fond memories and expressions of sympathy may be shared at www.strate-funeral.com for the Addington family. STRATE FUNERAL HOME, DAVENPORT, WA is caring for the family.

involved musically throughout her grade school, high school and college years. After college she played in a local band, performed in gospel singing groups, and has been involved in her church choir (St. Michael's Catholic Church) her entire life. Chris is survived by her husband Wayne, her daughter Amy Bell, her son Evan Huffman, her brothers Frank (Mary) Anderson, Lyle Anderson, Luke (Connie) Anderson, sister in law Muriel Anderson, and several nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her brothers, Joe and Roderick Anderson, and her parents, Helen and Joe Anderson.

A Celebration of Life Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, March 9, 2024 at 11:00 AM at St. Michael's Catholic Church, Reardan, WA with Father Sean Thomson, Officiating. Memorials may be made to St. Michael's Catholic Church or to Catholic Charities. Fond memories and expressions of sympathy may be shared at www.strate-funeral.com for the Huffman family.
