The Reardan-Edwall School District is SEEKING INTERESTED PARTIES (and cost estimates or quotes) to construct a 30' x 98' greenhouse on an existing concrete foundation. The greenhouse "kit" (which includes all steel, polycarbonate cladding and other materials purchased by the school) only needs to be constructed and comes with a detailed set of instructions. A set of the greenhouse assembly instructions and the equipment list is available on the Reardan-Edwall School District #9 website. This contract will include placing all associated greenhouse equipment where it is designated to go according to the construction drawings, but is not responsible for the utility hookups. This is a prevailing wage project and must meet all WA state associated requirements. Please respond if you are interested and available to perform this type of work and include a cost estimate or quote for the project. A site visit is recommended. Cost estimates or quotes are due NLT noon, 13 March 2024. *All interested parties are encouraged to sign up with MRSC if you have not already done so: <https://mrscrosters.org/> The Construction window is 1 April through 15 July 2024. The greenhouse kit is currently on site. Questions or inquires can be emailed to Jim Porter (jporter@reardansd.net), or you can call 509-862-8418.

"HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT"

Attn: All parents/caregivers/grandparents of kids of all ages
FREE EVENT • MUST BE 21+ TO ATTEND

WHEN: Wednesday, March 13th, 2024 from 6pm-8pm

WHERE: Wilbur-Creston High School Multipurpose Room

Childcare and dinner is provided to all that attend.
Pre-registration is encouraged.

WHAT: Teenage years can be difficult, indicators of teen drug use, mental health, human trafficking and other risk factors can be hidden in plain sight, but easy for parents and other adults to miss. This presentation brings a unique opportunity to get involved with the presentation through this two-part interactive event.

HANDS ON: Participants will walk through a mock teen bedroom and try to identify 70+ items, which can indicate problem or risky behavior.

PRESENTATION: After walking through the teen room, attendees will participate in a presentation and discussion which will cover:

- Identification and discussion of items and how they may indicate problem or risky behaviors.
- Popular local youth trends and data
- Tools to help navigate the teen year and discussion points for family conversations

Come and learn what is trending with youth today and how to start the conversations that can sometimes be difficult but are necessary. Resource tables will be available during this presentation for all participants.

REGISTRATION: To register for this FREE presentation or if you have any questions contact Billie Wheeler at (509) 385-2983 via text or call or email Billie at bwheeler@esd101.net

MARGARET ANNA-MARIE "PEGGY" BRUSIG PATRICK

Born November 24, 1937, left this world and entered the arms of her Savior, August 21, 2023. Peggy was born in Chicago, Illinois to Rudolf Adolf and Marie Brusig, the middle of three daughters. The family came west in 1947 and settled on 35 acres in Prosser, Washington. She graduated from Posser High School in 1955 and attended Seattle Pacific College, now University. She returned home and found work as a laboratory technician at Hanford.

While working at Hanford, she met a dashing young soldier, James "Jim" Patrick and the couple married in July 19, 1958. James had two children from a previous marriage, Jimmy Lynn "Susie" (deceased 1965) and Ronnie, and though these children never came West to live, the families kept contact and saw each other on trips to Kentucky. The union between Peggy and Jim produced four additional children. The family continued in Prosser, Washington until 1969 and for a time the family lived in Moses Lake, Washington where Peggy worked for the Department of Agriculture and for Tupperware. At one point she became a manager and her kids were excited to ride around backwards in the back of her company provided station wagon. In 1977 she and her family moved to Davenport, Washington where she raised her children, worked along side Jim in their business, Red Barn Upholstery, and lived the remainder of her life.

She is survived by her sister, Marudie Cabanyog, in Davenport, Washington, her four children, Rudolf Lee (Linelle) Patrick, in Boise, Idaho, Vanda Faye (Kurt) Cummings, in Crawfordsville, Oregon, Deanna Jean Klein, in Edwall, Washington and Michael James (Angie) Patrick, in Spokane Valley, Washington, along with Ronnie Patrick, in Salyersville, Kentucky. She had fourteen grandchildren, and numerous great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband James Patrick (1998), Jimmy Lynn Patrick (1965), Keith Klein (2021), and her sister Jean Overdorf (2015).

A memorial service will be held on March 9, 2024 at Harvest Assembly of God, in Davenport, Washington, at 2:00 p.m.

AVISTA'S MY ENERGY DISCOUNT PROGRAM OFFERS ONGOING RELIEF TO ELIGIBLE CUSTOMERS IN WASHINGTON

Thousands of customers can now get a lower bill every month.

Washington residential Avista customers searching for ways to manage their energy costs may now get the help they need. Through the company's new My Energy Discount program, participants receive a personalized and ongoing discount on their monthly bill.

"Over 31,000 Washington Avista customers have enrolled in My Energy Discount, since its launch in October," said Kelsey Solberg, Senior Energy Program Manager at Avista. "We're seeing people who've never thought about seeking help or who've been denied it in the past, find relief."

My Energy Discount's eligibility requirements vary by county and include higher household size and income levels. For instance, a household of four in Spokane County making up to $5,933 a month ($71,200 per year) can now access help. Despite more inclusive guidelines, Avista currently estimates at least 100,000 eligible Washington customers have yet to sign up.

"Applying is quick and easy," said Solberg. "All someone has to do is fill out an online application, call Avista, or visit their local community action agency."

No paperwork or additional documentation is required to apply. Avista recommends enrolling now, while winter weather is still here, and home heating continues to push bills higher. Once approved, participants will receive their discount for two years, before having to apply again.

"Funding is available for all eligible Washington customers," said Solberg. "If you think you or someone you know could benefit from a lower monthly Avista bill, don't wait any longer to see if you qualify."

To view household size and income guidelines, learn more, and apply, go to www.myavista.com/MyEnergyDiscountWA or call Avista at (800) 227-9187. Local community action agencies can also assist customers with enrollment.

2024 LINCOLN COUNTY TAX ROLL NOTICE
 Lincoln County Treasurer, Emily Lybbert Hansen, has completed the 2024 Tax & Assessment roll for collection. Providing notification, the Treasurer shall now accept payment and issue receipts for the 2024 taxes and assessments per RCW 84.56.020. The tax statements are scheduled to be mailed within the next two week. As part of our commitment to eco-friendly initiatives and simplifying tax payment processes for our residents, the Lincoln County Treasurer's office would like to encourage taxpayers to enroll in eNotices, as online statement presentment program that allows residents to receive their future tax statements electronically to a designated email address. To do so, simply find your authorization number located on your last paper statement received and ten create an account at www.enoticesonline.com. Taxpayers whose mortgage companies request their tax statement will not receive a statement. For further information or questions, contact the Treasurer's office at (509) 725-5061 or etreasurer@co.lincoln.wa.us. You may also visit our website at www.co.lincoln.wa.us.
