Reardan "YOUNG AT HEART" Senior Social & Lunch
 Fri Sept 8th 11:30-1:30
 150 W Spokane St
 (Reardan Presbyterian Church)

Come see what the buzz is all about! Everyone 55yr & older is welcome to join us for a delicious lunch and informative talk by Ken Sterner of Aging & Adult Care of Central Washington (AACCW). AACCW provides services to seniors and vulnerable adults. These are provided to enhance the quality of an individual's life and to allow individuals the opportunity to live in the least restrictive environment possible. Maybe you, or someone you know is in need of assistance with home care, food, or transportation? Bring your questions for Ken!

As always, lunch (spaghetti & salad, gluten-free options), is free, donations accepted. RSVP to Reardan Pres 509-796-2141, but come even if you didn't RSVP! Rides or lunch delivery can be arranged with a phone call too. Friends welcome.

"Young At Heart" (our new name!) will meet on 2nd & 4th Fri in Sept/Oct, only on 2nd Fri in Nov/Dec due to holidays. We hope you'll plan to join the fun; a different activity is planned for each meeting, along with a great lunch, and visiting, too.

LincolnCountyCares.org serves as a directory of resources located throughout Lincoln County WA that exist to elevate health. On this website, you can search by category, key word, or community to find the next tool to meet your health needs and goals.

A CASE OF MUSICAL TASTES

Lincoln County Museum News

An appreciative group gathered at the Lincoln County Museum in Davenport on August 19 for the presentation of "A Case of Musical Tastes." Presented by Steve Whiteside and guest Rob Harper, the crowd was treated to some history of the musical instruments on display at the museum. Featured were a coronet, saxophone, zither, some unique stringed instruments (relatives of the ukulele), a Jew's harp, and a ukulele that belonged to longtime Davenport resident, Barlee Brown.

Barlee (Boyk) Brown and her sister, Lois, were raised in the Rocklyn area and performed around the Northwest and on live radio in Spokane, WA from the 1930s to 1950s. They performed songs from the 30s, 40s, and Civil War eras, with Barlee on ukulele and Lois on guitar. Barlee's performance costume and ukulele were prominently displayed, and he crowd was treated to a recording of she and her sister singing. Barlee and her husband, Ralph (long time Davenport Elementary School Principal), lived in Davenport, where they raised four children. She passed away in 2022.

Steve Whiteside

Rob Harper, DHS Band Director, gave a short presentation on the coronet that was on display, using his son's trumpet to compare and contrast the sound of the two instruments. He shared fascinating information about brass instruments in general, including an interesting visual of how sound waves work in the production of the notes we hear from those instruments. His knowledge and "classroom presence" were the perfect addition to the program.

Along with a bit of history about each instrument, recordings of each were played to illustrate their sound. A particularly unique recording of a concerto composed specifically to include the Jew's harp (also called "jaw harp" or "mouth harp") rounded out the program.

Special thanks to Steve and Rob for giving of their time and talent. Steve's knowledge of music and music history and his passion for sharing that knowledge with others made for a lively and informative presentation.

Steve will be giving another presentation in May of 2024, so mark your calendars!

COMING SOON: Mark your calendar for Saturday, September 16, 2023 at 1 p.m., when the museum will present "Harry Tracy: Bad Guy," his life and his connection to Lincoln County.

ARNOLD H. JOHNSON

Passed away peacefully on August 19, 2023 in Davenport, WA; his home is in Hunters, WA.

He was born February 28, 1934 in Big Lake, Minnesota to Henry and Hazel Johnson. He married Josephine Keyes on September 21, 1951 in Coeur d'Alene, ID. Arnold worked as a longshoreman in Western Washington for many years before deciding to move his family to Hunters, WA, where he bought a ranch and became a farmer/rancher. He loved his ranch and his animals and has been in the Hunters area for the last 50 years. Arnold is survived by his wife of 72 years, Josephine, at the ranch, and two sons, Robert and Michael Johnson, along with six grandchildren, six great grandchildren, his sister Arles Brown, and several nieces and nephews.

As per his request, no service will be held but a family remembrance will be held at the family ranch. Memorials may be made to the donor's choice. Fond memories and expressions of sympathy may be shared at www.strate-funeral.com for the Johnson family. STRATE FUNERAL HOME, DAVENPORT, WA is caring for the family.
