QUILT SHOW AT RAILROAD MUSEUM

Quilters and railfans alike will enjoy a special weekend September 30 - October 1 & 2 when the Inland Northwest Rail Museum sponsors its Fifth Annual Quilt Show from 11 am - 4 pm all three days. It's a chance to learn railroad history, take a train ride, tour the museum, and view the quilts on display. A special $8 admission for adults covers everything!

This response to the quilt show has been outstanding throughout the years. It's for fun!... no entry fees and no special categories. Visitors pick their favorites resulting in People's Choice Awards of $100 for first, $50 second and $25 third. Quilts are on display throughout the museum so you will be able to learn Inland Northwest Railroad History as you wander the building looking at quilts.

The museum specializes in preserving the history of Inland Northwest railroads. Railcars and hundreds of pieces of memorabilia are on display. Gone are familiar railroad names like Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Spokane, Portland & Seattle, Central Washington, Spokane International, Milwaukee and many branch lines. Years of mergers and failures by area railroads are concentrated in today's Union Pacific and Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railroads. Histories of each of those original railroads are on display in the museum in addition to the last existing Spokane streetcar.

Any day is a great time to visit, but "Quilt Show Weekend" is a double barrel opportunity to visit the museum at 27300 Sprinkle Rd (25-miles west of Spokane, corner of Hwy 2 & 231 S), Reardan. (509) 797-3377. Visit their website at www.inlandnwrailmuseum.com
