Ronald Bolyard

Passed away August 28th in Davenport, WA. Born in Garfield, WA October 1st 1934 to James and Gaynell Bolyard. He was the second oldest of six children, three boys and three girls. They moved to a farm outside of Coulee City when he was a young boy, living there throughout his school years. There were some great stories about him and his siblings walking to the schoolhouse which was down the road a couple miles. He married Jerraine Johnson from Coulee City right after high school graduation and started raising a family. Three children resulted from this union: Donald, Peggy and Bret. With joy in life, there can be sadness, which was the case when Donnie passed away at close to age two.

Ron, Jerraine, Peggy and Bret had a happy, secure and warm household for many years. In 1970 Jerraine and Ron got a divorce which is truly a life changing event for all involved. Ron moved to Spokane for a couple of years before settling in Davenport for the remainder of his time.

Ron was a resourceful, energetic, sincere caring man who was always ready to lend a hand if he knew you or a stranger. Working on cars, trucks, and equipment was his main passion in life and also his occupation. His advice and skills were sought after by many folks throughout his life. Once you became a friend of Ron's, you were a friend for life. His sense of humor was a huge part of him and really was contagious. He laughed with his entire being! Ron lived up front and real. Up at dawn greeting each day with a zest; that just was his personality.

Building his log cabin home was just an incredible experience using fir logs from the land. Learning as we went. It was so fortunate that we did much of it together.

Mounting health issues in his last few years were just never ending, his spirit and strong will propelling him through so much of it until the very end when the battle just could not be won.

Ron is survived by his son Bret Bolyard and wife Teri, granddaughters Hilary, Lindsey and Jerri Rose, sisters Naomi, Leona, and Luana. Predeceased by parents James and Gaynell Bolyard, son Donnie, daughter Peggy, brothers Jimmy and Billy.

Hats off to you, Dad, for a life well lived!

Pretty big shoes to fill!

Introducing
Dr. Chad Barrett, MD,
Hospitalist

What is a Hospitalist? A medical doctor who delivers care to patients admitted to the hospital or transitional care, often specializing in family or internal medicine.

Dr. Barrett's role involves overseeing and arranging patient treatment, and working alongside nurses, specialists, and other healthcare professionals. Hospitalists diagnose and treat various medical conditions, order tests, adjust medications, and act as the main contact for answering questions from you and your family. Your condition updates will be communicated to your primary care provider by Dr. Barrett. His main emphasis is on inpatient care, enabling primary care physicians to focus on outpatient and preventive care.
